Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies

BULLETIN No. 9

"DING-DONG"

A Trail Rider's Song.

Music by Harold Eustace Key.

When the minstrels are a-singing,
And the band begins to play;
When the wedding bells are ringing,
In a merry roundelay,
Sure I'm happy then, yet sweeter
Than the music of them all,
Is the song that's sung by Peter,
When he sounds the early call.

When the ghosts are out a-riding,
On the trails of night they know,
And the world is all a-hiding,
And the campfire burning low;
Then we take it for a token
That it's time asleep to fall,
And our dreams are only broken
When we hear the early call.

Chorus

"Ding - Dong! time to get up! the Sun is up and a - Slid - ing high up ov - er the Moun-tain top, Kis-sing the Camp good Morn-ing. Beans are Read-y and Cof-fee hot
Pon-ies sad-dled for Rid-ing, Sing Ho! Sing Ho! Sing ho for the trail

LAST CALL FOR THE TRAIL RIDES

Those intending to take part in the Trail Rides organized for this summer must decide quickly as the guides and horses for such large parties cannot be secured at short notice. Of the two main official rides, the five day ride leaves Lake Louise early on the morning of July 29th, and the three day ride from Banff and Lake Louise for Johnstone Canyon early on the morning of July 31st, both meeting for the Pow-Wow in the Ptarmigan Valley on August 1st. Rates for the five day ride are $60.00 per head, and for the three day ride $35.00 per head. Rebates for those who bring their own saddle horses are $15 for the five day ride and $10 for the three day ride.

Last day for reservations, which must be accompanied with cheque made out to the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies, is July 24th. After July 10th all letters should be addressed c/o the Secretary, Rocky Mountain Guides Association, Brewster Transport Company, Banff, Alberta, as the Secretary-Treasurer of the Trail Riders expects to leave Montreal about that date for Banff.

The Jasper Squadron Trail Ride leaves Jasper on July 19th and a party is expected to ride through from Jasper to the Pow-Wow in the Ptarmigan Valley. Rates $350 per head for those riding through. $60 per head for the Jasper five day Trail Ride and Pow-Wow.

Another party will ride from the Kananaskis Dude Ranch, to join the five day trail ride, leaving Kananaskis on July 24th for Lake Louise. The rates quoted by Mrs. Bill Brewster for this ride are $10.00 a day.

A distinguished party headed by the Marquis Albizzi will initiate a month's riding and camping trip by taking in the first two days of the three day ride, joining the Pow-Wow in the Ptarmigan Valley on August 1st. The Duke Dimitri de Leuchtenberg, a great-grandson of Czar Nicholas I, is expected to be a member of this party.

Following on the Pow-Wow, Jack Brewster, who operates the "Glacier Trail" rides between Jasper and Lake Louise, is organizing a party to ride from Lake Louise to Jasper—rates $300.00 per head. Jack was with us last year on the Goodsir Trail and has promise of a good party, which he is well able to take care of.

Guy Weadick, of Calgary Stampede fame, expects to be with us and is organizing a ride from Lake Louise following the Pow-Wow to the Stampede Ranch near the Prince of Wales' Ranch at High River.

A large number of reservations have already been made for both the official trail rides and the indications are all in favour of a record turnout.

As song leader for the five day ride we expect to have Harold Eustace Key, Conductor of the Mendelssohn Choir, of Montreal, who was with us last year, and has been inspired to write a Trail Rider's Song, words and chorus of which are printed on the front page of this Bulletin by courtesy of the publishers, Le Carillon, 7 St. Catherine Street East, Montreal, who have issued the music in sheet form, which we hope to have on sale at Byron Harmon's Store, in Banff, and other convenient places before the Trail

Rides. This is dedicated to the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies. All who have heard it say it is very catching. "Le Carillon" is an enterprising music publishing firm in Montreal which has issued a French translation to accompany the English words. Our hope is that next year we may have some French-Canadian trail riders.

The song leader on the three day ride will be Mr. H. H. Hewetson, also a musician from Montreal, particularly expert with the guitar.

RED TRAIL

Five Day Ride—leaving Lake Louise Station early morning July 29th, to Bow Pass, returning via Molar Creek and Ptarmigan Valley. Rate $60.00.

BLUE TRAIL

Three Day Ride—leaving Banff or Lake Louise early morning July 31st by motor to horses near Johnstone Canyon—thence riding by Johnstone Creek, Baker Creek and Ptarmigan Valley to Lake Louise. Rate $35.00.

BOTH TRAIL RIDES MEET FOR POW-WOW IN PTARMIGAN VALLEY—AUGUST 1st.

Each Trail Rider must bring own sleeping bag or two warm blankets—personal equipment to be in roll not exceeding thirty-five pounds.

LATEST DAY FOR RESERVA- TIONS, WHICH MUST BE AC- COMPANIED WITH CHEQUE, JULY 24th, made out to Secretary-Treasurer, Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies, address c/o Secretary, Rocky Mountain Guides Association, Brewster Transport Company, Banff, Alberta.

Camp Fire and Pow-Wow Songs

Practice these Extracts from Song Sheet for the Trail Rides and Pow-Wow

OUT YONDER

(Canadian Version)

Over the Rocky Mountain trails I know,
Up where the Alpine roses blow,
There are the valleys we can wander through,
There let me honeymoon with you.

Out where the rivers through the canyons flow,
Up where the Yoho forests grow,
There we shall camp beside a lake so blue,
There I shall tell my love to you,

Refrain

Out yonder, out yonder, I'll ride the trails with you,
Out yonder we'll wander and bid all care adieu!
We'll roam there; find home there; we'll take a tent for two
Out yonder, out yonder, where hearts are always true.

Refrain

Out yon-der — Out yon-der — I'll ride the trails with you — Out yon-der we'll wan-der — and bid all care a-dieu — We'll roam there
— find home there — we'll take a tent for two — Out yon-der — out yon-der — Where hearts are al-ways true — Out true. —

(By Permission of Leo Feist, Toronto)

SADDLE ME UP (Tune—Doodle Doo Doo)

Please sing for me
That sweet melody
Called Saddle Me Up,
Saddle Me Up!
I am a pony
Aged and bony,
Saddle Me Up,
Saddle Me Up!
What though I be a trifle decrepit,
Show me a trail and saddle me up it;
I love it so,
Where'er you go
Just saddle-me-addle-me up!

IN AN ALPINE VALE BY AN INDIAN TRAIL (Tune—Just a Cottage Small By a Waterfall)

When you're sitting alone in the city
At a desk in a stiff office chair,
When the shares you have bought
Make you feel you are caught
In a net that brings nothing but care;
Then a Bulletin comes of a Trail Ride
With the pictures of mountains so high,
And you run for the train
That will bring you again
To the Land That is Next To The Sky

Chorus

In an Alpine vale by an Indian trail
Round a cosy fire in camp,
With the boughs piled high in a tent nearby
And the moon a silvery lamp;
Then our singing goes a-ringing out
To the snowfields up above.
In an Alpine vale by an Indian trail
Where we live the life we love.

O'HARA

(Tune—Remember)

One little ride
With you by my side,
And blue skies overhead,
One little trail
By mountain and vale
Where fairy footsteps tread,
One little campfire
Where we are tenting;
One little chorus,
No one dissenting.

Chorus

O'Hara,
The lake, the lake of heavenly wonder!
O'Hara,
O'Hara,
Beneath the avalanche's thunder,
O'Hara,
O'Hara with silver waterfalls,
And echo that o'er the lake recalls
The music of elfin carnivals—
Who could forget you, O'Hara?

Deep in the wood,
In still solitude,
The emerald waters gleam;
So debonair,
What could be so rare
Save in a fairy's dream?
Only a jewel
From the tiara
Worn by the Snow Queen
Shines like O'Hara.

COWBOYS (Tune—Horses)

Took my girl to the Pow-Wow,
Gee! How I hate the Pow-Wow!
There we rode, riding Indian file.
I fell flat, couldn't raise a smile.
Took one look at a great big guide
And that was the way I died—
Chorus.

Crazy over Cowboys, Powboys, Wowboys,
Nutty over Cowboys, Powboys, Wowboys,
Goofy over Cowboys, Powboys, Wowboys,
She is all beguiled,
Duffy over Cowboys, Powboys, Wowboys,
Silly over Cowboys, Powboys, Wowboys,
Once I heard her call me 'Bill Potts Brewster Moore'.
How I wish I could be her bronco-buster at a dude-
ranche, dude-ranche, dude-ranche,
At an altitude-ranche, tude-ranche, tude-ranche,
Where-the-gum-is-chew'd-ranche, chew'd-ranche, chew'dranche.
Full of woolley chapps,
With legs well tied to my horse's side,
I'd holler thanks for the old Trail Ride.
Oh it's Cowboys, Powboys, Wowboys all the time.

When we came from the Pow-Wow
Gee! How she hit the bow-wows.
She made a fuss about a motorbus,
Motorbus far too small for us,
She preferred a hippopotamus
And that was the Ford she'd ride.

I'M RIDING THE ROOF OF THE WORLD (Tune—I'm Sitting on Top of the World)

Don't want any Rolls Royce
Or Passenger Car;
A seat on a Pony
Is jollier far.
Don't want any Cushion—
A saddle for Me—
And see me just push on
As gay as can be.

I'm riding the Roof of the World,
That's where I belong,
That's where I belong,
On Trails on the Top of the World,
Just trotting along
And singing a Song—
Won't you join the Chorus?
I just ride the Mountains
Until I'm ready to fall,
I just joined the Riders
With Button and all.
I'm riding the Roof of the World.
That's where I belong,
That's where I belong.

BE GLAD YOU CAME ALONG (Tune—The Sidewalks of New York)

Riding, riding all around the lot,
You feel like Humpty-Dumpty, and you think you'd rather not:
Pull yourself together, sing a little song—
Soon you'll like the saddle and be glad you came along.

CAN'T TELL WHY I RIDE YOU, BUT I DO (Tune—I Can't Tell Why I Love You, But I Do)

I can't tell why I ride you, but I do-o-o.
There's lots of other ponies just as good as you.
But something in your eye
Says "You'd better not pass by."
I can't tell why I ride you, but I do-o-o.

I AM A TRAIL RIDER (Tune—I Want to Be Happy—from "No-No-Nanette")

James:

I'm a very ordinary cuss,
Never rode upon a motor bus,
Never rode a trolley but I thought it was a silly thing to do.
When there is a pony to be got,
You can bet you'll find me on the spot,
Sitting on the saddle that was meant for either me or you.

Refrain:

I am a Trail Rider,
You are a Trail Rider,
She is a Trail Rider too!
Ambling along
With a jest and a song
There was never a jollier crew!
Nothing to worry or make us feel blue,
Just that the days are too few!
I am a Trail Rider, too!
You are a Trail Rider,
She is a Trail Rider

Nanette:

I'm a very ordinary girl,
Never had a maid my hair to curl,
Never used a powder-puff because it seemed a silly thing to do.
For I find a pony curls my hair
When I gallop in the mountain air,
Bringing all the rosy cheeks I need to keep my lover true.

Refrain:

As above.

ONE WARM SWEET GLOW (Tune—Love's Old Sweet Song)

Once in the dear dead days beyond recall
When o'er the camp the night began to fall,
And on the fire the logs were burning low,
Over our hearts there came a warm, sweet glow;
And in the tent where fell the flickering gleam
Softly there rose into our thoughts a dream:

Just a little night cap
When the fire is low,
All the dishes washed up
And to bed we go,
Though our limbs are weary,
Sore from thigh to toe,
Still a little night cap
Gives one sweet glow,
Gives one warm sweet glow.

And when to-night we dream that dream of yore
Down in our shins it may not feel so sore,
Knees may be shaky, weary from the trails,
Still we can dream the cure that seldom fails.
So in the night when firelight shadows fall
This may be found the sweetest dream of all
Just a little night cap—etc.

MY PONY IS OUT IN THE OPEN (Tune—My Bonnie Is Over The Ocean)

My pony is out in the open,
My pony is off on a spree,
My pony is out in the open,
O bring back my pony to me.

Bring back, bring back, O bring back my pony to me, to me.
Bring back, bring back, O bring back my pony to me.

O run, ye guides, out in the open;
O run, ye guides, after my gee;
O tie her up tight with a rope on
And bring back my pony to me.

The guides have run out in the open;
The guides have gone after my gee;
And tied her up tight with a rope on
And brought back my pony to me.

FOLLOW THE TRAIL ALONG HOME
(Tune—Follow The Swallow Back Home)

With a guide
At my side
Where am I
Gonna ride?—
Follow the trail along home.

Saddle sore,
Tender feet,
When am I
Gonna eat?—
Follow the trail along home.

When I feel a rest is due me
And the guide is calling to me,
If I go and find instead
Right ahead
Waiting there
Grizzly bear—
Follow the trail along home!

IN THE MOUNTAINS BY THE CAMPFIRE
(Tune—In The Evening By The Moonlight)

In the mountains by the campfire
You can hear mosquitoes singing;
In the mountains by the campfire
You can feel mosquitoes stinging:
How the blighters must enjoy it,
As we lie all night and listen,
As they sing in the mountains by the campfire!

THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL
(Trail Rider's Version)

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where I hear my comrades singing
And the camp-fire gleams.
There's a long, long night of dozing
Until the day breaks anew,
And I start again a-riding
Down that long, long trail with you.

KEEP THE CAMPFIRE BURNING
(Tune—Keep The Home Fires Burning)

Keep the Campfire burning,
Day to night is turning,
Soon our fancies with the stars in dreams shall roam.
Let the light be glowing,
Warmth and sleep bestowing,
Till at last the dawn comes up
For the long trail home.

WHAT'LL I CHEW?
(Tune—What'll I do?)

What'll I chew?
When Wrigley's far away
And Spearmint too,
What'll I chew?

What'll I chew?
When all my gum is through
And candy too,
What'll I chew?

What'll I chew?
With just a peppermint
To share 'twixt me and you.

What'll I chew?
When teeth are all too few
And not quite new,
What'll I chew?

MY MILD-EYED CAYUSE
(Tune—My Wild Irish Rose)

My mild-eyed Cayuse,
So gentle and so spruce,
There's none on the trail
Walks more like a snail
Than my mild-eyed Cayuse.

My mild-eyed Cayuse
I whip, but what's the use?
And some day for my sins
She'll kick out her shins
And run like a wild-eyed Cayuse.

A-RIDING, A-RIDING
(Tune—A-Roving)

One day upon the C.P.R.
(Mark well what I do say!)
Out on an observation car
I met a moving picture Star
And she said she went a-riding
The livelong day.
A-riding, a-riding, a-riding where the Rockies are,
She said she went a-riding the livelong day.

I showed her our official chart
(Mark well what I do say!)
And I asked her where she meant to start,
But she answered, "Mister, have a heart!"
Though she said she went a-riding
The livelong day.
A-riding, a-riding, a-riding where the Rockies are,
She said she went a-riding the livelong day.

She wore her golden hair all loose
(Mark well what I do say!)
And her riding breeches looked so spruce—
She said, "I do it to reduce,
That's why I go a-riding
The livelong day."
A-riding, a-riding, a-riding where the Rockies are,
She said she went a-riding the livelong day.

I said, "I'll guide you anywhere."
(Mark well what I do say!)
But she answered with a freezing air,
"I ride upon a rocking chair."
And she said she went a-riding
The livelong day.
A-riding, a-riding, a-riding where the Rockies are,
She said she went a-riding the livelong day.

SAY AU REVOIR BUT NOT GOODBYE

Say au revoir but not goodbye
To this dear land of open sky,
Where we have found in flowery vales
The freedom of the mountain trails.
Though duty calls and we must go
We'll ride in dreams the trails we know.

In joy or pain, sunshine or rain,
We love it still, we'll come again.
Say au revoir but not goodbye,
We'll come again, so do not sigh.
In joy or pain, sunshine or rain,
We love it still, we'll come again.

RIDE—RIDE—RIDE
(Tune—Pack Up Your Troubles)

Pack up a bottle in your duffle bag
And ride, ride, ride.
Keep out a lucifer to light your fag,
Ride, old timer, ride!
What's the use of worrying?
The world is good and wide, so
Pack up a bottle in your duffle bag
And ride, ride, ride!
